

Single-State vs Multistate License RN or LPN Applying by Endorsement

Washington Single-State License	Washington Multistate License (MSL)
Allows practice in Washington State only.	Allows practice in Washington State and 40 other participating compact states.
Initial License Fee: $138 for RN, $93 for LPN	Initial License Fee: $203 for RN, $158 for LPN
Annual Renewal Fee: $138 for RN, $93 for LPN	Annual Renewal Fee: $158 for RN, $113 for LPN
Initial License by Endorsement Requirements: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Application and fee • Graduate of a BON approved nursing education program • Verification of an active license in another US state and passing NCLEX results • FBI fingerprint background check (if out of state address) 	Initial License by Endorsement Requirements: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Application and fee • Graduate of a BON approved nursing education • Verification of an active license in another US state and passing NCLEX results • FBI fingerprint background check • Valid US Social Security Number • WA State must be primary state of residence (PSOR) • Must not be a participant in an alternative to discipline program or have ever been convicted of a felony.